Opening Pitch: F

1) Come, Crafts - men, as - sembl - ed our plea - sure to share, Who walk by the plumb and who work by the square,
2) We'll seek in our la - bors the spi - rit di - vine, Our tem - ple to bless and our hearts to re - fine,
3) See, Or - der and Beau - ty rise gent - ly to view, Each broth - er a co - lumn so per - fect and true

While travel - ling in love on the le - vel of time, Sweet hope shall light on to
And thus to our al - tar a trib - ute we'll bring, While joined in true friend - ship
When Or - der shall cease, and when tem - ples de - cay, May each, fair - er co - lumns

Sweet hope shall light on to, Sweet hope shall light on to a far bet - ter clime.
While joined in true friend - ship, While joined in true friend - ship our an - them we sing.
May each, fair - er col - umns, May each, fair - er col - umns im - mor - tal sur - vey.
