WILLIAM R. DAVIE

LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

The Davie Academy is named for the revolutionary war hero, diplomat, N.C. governor and Grand Master whose enlightened leadership placed our fraternity on a strong foundation in its early years.

Four sessions – two introductory, one intermediate and one advanced – are offered in each region of the state every year. Sessions are on the first Saturday of the month.

The William R. Davie

Leadership Academy provides new opportunities for North Carolina Masons to explore the craft and improve themselves as Masonic leaders. The Academy makes advanced Masonic education accessible by offering day-long sessions on the first Saturday of each month in locations across the state. Instructors are experienced Masonic leaders specially trained to deliver coursework for maximum impact and efficiency, and training is targeted to members from the newest Master Mason to the seasoned lodge officer.

The Academy:

- Makes Masonic education inclusive, accessible and affordable;
- Provides high quality and relevant education in Masonic leadership, management and traditions; and
- Prepares you for leadership at the lodge, district and state levels.

The Academy replaces the Wardens Bootcamps with day-long introductory, intermediate and advanced sessions. It does not replace Wilkerson College, an intensive leadership training program taking place over three weekends in Greensboro, Oxford and Raleigh.

Students choose from four academic tracks:

Introduction to Freemasonry:
History and Traditions

Introduction to Masonic Leadership:
The Lodge Officer

Intermediate Topics in Masonic Leadership:
Approaching the East

Advanced Topics in Masonic Leadership:
The Master's Station

Sessions begin at 9 a.m. and end at 3:30 p.m. The cost is $45 per session in advance or $60 at the door and includes lunch, all instructional materials and a certificate awarded upon successful completion. Preregistration through Eventbrite is strongly encouraged.
